CABERNET MERLOT | 21
GREAT SOUTHERN

“flamboyantly fruitful”

An enticing bouquet of ripe dark fruits, dominated by blackberries and plums, with a hint of white pepper. Layers of complexity unfold in this medium-bodied wine from the Great Southern region, where rich flavours of cassis, blackberries and a touch of blueberries emerge on the palate.

Expect subtle hints of cedar, tobacco, and vanilla from seasoned oak barrels in what is a harmonious balance between flamboyance and structure.

This luscious, fruit-driven wine delivers in layers of complexity where nuances of cocoa and a hint of earthiness emerge, adding depth and sophistication.
